WOMEN'S ARTISTIC GYMNASTICS

Athlete - Sport Selection Policy and Standards

The information in this selection policy is accurate as at September 2021 but remains subject to change. As a result of the unique and extenuating circumstances caused by COVID-19 and the subsequent impact on international sporting calendars, CGS and Scottish Gymnastics will be closely monitoring this Selection Policy to determine if any changes are necessary.

For the avoidance of doubt, CGS reserves the right to amend this Selection Policy in any manner, and in the sole and absolute discretion of CGS, should CGS consider that qualification process would be fairer having regard to the interests of all Athletes and the prevailing circumstances.

In addition, CGS and Scottish Gymnastics reserve the right to not apply any aspect of this Selection Policy when making any decision, if in the sole and absolute discretion of CGS, it would, as judged by CGS, be unfair or unreasonable not to, provided always that CGS has regard to the interests of all Athletes in the prevailing circumstances

Introduction

- 1 This selection policy has been agreed by Scottish Gymnastics and Commonwealth Games Scotland (CGS). It provides detail on the process by which Scottish Gymnastics will arrive at athlete nominations, which will be submitted to CGS for consideration, for final selection to Team Scotland for Birmingham 2022.

Achievement, by an athlete, of individual selection standards, detailed in this document, is therefore the 1st step by which nomination can be considered. The final decision in selection to the 2022 Games lies with CGS.

- 2 Scottish Gymnastics will nominate only those athletes that have qualified under both the Women's Artistic Specific Selection Standards stated below, and the CGS General Selection Policy (available on the CGS website) that should be read in conjunction with these standards.
- 3 Entry numbers per event and the overall number of athletes within the team are in accordance with Commonwealth Games Federation (CGF) allocation. Should more athletes achieve the standards then Scottish Gymnastics will prioritise in accordance with the gymnastics policies.

CGS have confirmed that a minimum of 6 places have been allocated to Gymnastics (across all gymnastics disciplines) subject to meeting the sport specific selection criteria. These are referred to as assured places.

Scottish Gymnastics is committed to taking as many gymnasts on the journey as possible and will apply for additional discretionary places for anyone who is nominated for selection above this minimum number

Team Scotland General Selection Policy Aim

- 4 Scotland selects a team that performs with distinction in 2022:
 - having a higher percentage of athletes meeting the selection standards when in competition at these Games than in 2018
 - meeting the stated performance aims of each sport at the Games
 - with all Team members having a positive experience within Team Scotland at the Games.
- 5 All gymnastics policies are consistent with the Team Scotland General Selection Policy aim

Athlete Eligibility

- 6 The eligibility criteria of the CGF Constitution and Byelaws, must be met by all nominees, see Appendix 1. Where prospective team members do not automatically comply with the above, they will only be nominated for final selection if they receive prior approval from the CGF under their guidelines.

Games Competition Format

- 7 Each country can enter a maximum of 5 females. Where a nation wishes to enter the team event, a minimum of 3 competitors must be entered. Team standings to be determined by the aggregate team score with the 3 best performances on each individual apparatus to score.

Separate individual all-around finals and separate individual apparatus competitions will be held, with athletes selected on the basis of performance in the team competition.

To be eligible for selection, a minimum age applies in accordance with the Federation of International Gymnastics (FIG) regulations:

- Women's Artistic 16 years in the year of competition (born 2006 or earlier)

Sport Specific Selection Standards

- 8 Below are the key selection details applicable to Women's Artistic Gymnastics:

The gymnastics priority outcomes for Birmingham 2022:

- i. Medal outcome (Team or Individual) (MAG/WAG/RHY)
- ii. Top 6 finish (i.e. Top 6 in finals of All Around final/individual apparatus finals) (MAG/WAG/RHY)

On nomination of all athletes to CGS therefore, Scottish Gymnastics will prioritise athletes across disciplines based on predicted places which could be achieved by individuals/team using the ranked order above. Greater priority will be applied to those predicted as achieving the highest place (irrespective of gymnastic discipline); please refer to the Rhythmic and Men's Artistic selection policies for further information on selection standards.

There will be two rounds to the nomination process:

- Round 1: Automatic nomination
- Round 2: Wider consideration nomination

8.1 Round 1: Automatic nomination

If an athlete achieves any of the below standards of performance, the gymnast will be automatically nominated following this priority order:

- i. Selection for the Olympic Games in 2021 (Tokyo)
- ii. Medal at the British Championships 2022 (All-Around/Individual apparatus)
- iii. Women's Artistic senior finalist (individual apparatus or Top 8 All Around) at British Championships 2022

For avoidance of doubt, these are the final placings as published in the official results for the British Championships 2022 excluding guests.

8.2 Round 2: Wider nomination consideration

A benchmarking system (section 8.2.3) will be used to support nomination decisions for gymnasts who have not achieved the criteria for automatic nomination. Scores achieved at a competition most likely to replicate the Games environment will be given greater weighting in decision making

8.2.1 The below points are the key considerations used in the decision-making process to determine consideration for nomination (in no particular order).

For gymnasts being considered as apparatus specialists:

- Gymnasts must achieve the benchmark score on at least one piece of apparatus. The benchmark score must be achieved at least twice at two different selection events listed in 8.2.2

For gymnasts being considered for all-around:

- Gymnasts must achieve the all-around benchmark score at least once at any of the events listed in 8.2.2

To support team nomination decisions:

- Where a team can demonstrate medal potential, the selection panel will consider Best Team Fit to maximise the potential team score. Scottish Gymnastics reserves the right to nominate the best team and will use results from the identified selection events to determine best team composition to attend the Games; Scottish Gymnastics will use technical guidance and input from Scottish Gymnastics' National Technical Advisor to support gymnast nomination decisions from those who have met the minimum standards.

8.2.2 Scores will only be considered for nomination at the following events:

- English Championships 2022
- Welsh Championships 2022
- Scottish Championships 2022
- Lilleshall selection event (April 2022) - all gymnasts in Round 2 must attend this event [special dispensation not to attend this event due to International Competition duties or other exceptional circumstances need to be agreed in advance by Head of Performance.

8.2.3 Bench marking system

The benchmark scoring system will collate the results from the 2022 British Championships (Day 1) as a reference point to demonstrate Top 6 Potential at the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games. These results will be made public and communicated.

For clarification for All Around this will be the Top 8 ranked scores, and for individual apparatus this will be the Top 8 ranked scores from qualification rounds (i.e. Day 1 in the All Around).

For avoidance of doubt this will also include the ranking of any guests who have participated at the British Championships and are part of a nation that will be represented at the Commonwealth Games. Where British bonuses have been applied that are not recognised in the FIG code of points, these scores will be adjusted and ranked accordingly.

8.3 In the event of a prospective gymnast is unable to attend one of the identified selection events, an additional pre-approved FIG/international event (i.e. NCAA) may be considered (these will be judged on FIG code of points). This must be approved in advance (minimum 4 weeks) by the Head of Performance, CGS and National Technical Advisor; an independent panel of Brevet judges identified to judge will be allocated. The score(s) given under these circumstances is not open to appeal.

8.4 In the event of an injury, illness or exceptional circumstance preventing the individual participating in the named selection events between January 2022–April 2022, the selection panel will consider the competitions listed below, this is not an exhaustive list and other comparable events to may be considered to establish a back-up profile for the athlete:

- British Championships 2021 (rearranged to Autumn 2021)
- Adrian Stan British Teams Competition (September 2021)
- Scottish Open Championships (October/November 2021 TBC)
- Representative events for Great Britain or Scottish Gymnastics

Scottish Gymnastics will provide control testing opportunities to be judged on the new code of points in a controlled environment to allow gymnasts opportunities to test new routines/elements under the scoring system of the new code of points between September–December 2021. These controls may also be used in the event of an injury or exceptional circumstance.

In the case of injury or illness this must be authenticated by a medical note either from a medical doctor or from a chartered physiotherapist and submitted to the Head of Performance, which will be in consultation with the Team Scotland Chief Medical Officer.

In the case of exceptional circumstances this must be submitted and discussed with the Head of Performance and can be defined as such circumstances that are comparable to a bereavement of a close family member, exceptional travel delays out with control which causes an athlete to miss the event.

Gymnasts who have missed the British Championships due to injury, illness or exceptional circumstances outlined in 8.4 or in 8.3 may still be prioritised in the nomination process providing their results at other designated selection events demonstrate a medal outcome at the Birmingham 2022 Commonwealth Games.

Other Factors for Consideration

- 9 All nominated athletes must have completed the required anti-doping education.
- 10 All athletes must have signed, returned and adhere to the Scottish Gymnastics Gymnast Agreement and Code of Conduct.

Any unavailability for competition or training, for any of the reasons outlined in section 8, must be advised and agreed with the Head of Performance in advance.

There will be no named reserves recognised by CGS as part of the nomination process for the Commonwealth Games.

Selection Process

- 11 Final Nominations will be made by the Scottish Gymnastics selection panel, on the 18 April 2022, comprising of:
 - Scottish Gymnastics Board Technical Director for Olympic Disciplines
 - Scottish Gymnastics Head of Performance & Education
 - Scottish Gymnastics Performance Manager (Olympic Disciplines)
 - CGS staff member (non-voting) – independent observer

- 12 The selection panel will seek technical input from the following (non-voting) either in the form of written reports or attendance during appropriate parts of the selection meeting:
 - National Technical Advisor
 - Commonwealth Games named Team Coaches (Discipline specific) – if different from above
 - Performance / support staff invited by Head of Performance
 - Technical Judge (Brevet) in each discipline

Scottish Gymnastics will approach nomination decisions through adopting a strategy which will maximise medal impact at the Games and takes into account section 8.

In reaching their decision the selection panel are acting as experts and the athletes agree that in so doing the panel exercises judgment and discretion.

- 13 Scottish Gymnastics will contact all nominated athletes after the Scottish Gymnastics selection panel meeting on the 19 April 2022. Scottish Gymnastics will also contact, in confidence, those athletes who were not successful in the nomination meeting on the same date.
- 14 Scottish Gymnastics will send their nominations to CGS by 2 May 2022. CGS will confirm the initial team selections by 15 May 2022 and final team selection by 30 May 2022.
- 15 Final selection to the Games team is dependent on receipt of relevant information required by CGS such as completion and signing of the CGF Eligibility form and CGS Team Member Agreement.

All gymnasts must be able to demonstrate form and fitness in the lead up to nomination. In addition, following successful selection and up towards the Games, ongoing form and fitness will be monitored of the selected gymnasts by Scottish Gymnastics' National Technical Advisor in partnership with Scottish Gymnastics Head of Performance, in line with Section 27 of the CGS General Selection Policy.

De-Selection

16 Antidoping

Athletes suspended by their Governing Body as a result of ongoing or concluded anti-doping violation allegations, will not be considered for selection, and if previously selected will be deselected from the Birmingham 2022 team.

Injury Management

Where injury issues are identified at or after selection, a fitness test may be used to determine that the athlete is capable of performing to the level that they were selected for the Games. The format will be determined by CGS after discussion with the Gymnastics Team Management. This will be specific to Women's Artistic Gymnastics and the athlete's condition and may include input from CGS medical staff. Any selection or de-selection decision, following such a test, will be made by CGS after discussion with the Gymnastics Team Management and will be final.

Athletes in breach of CGS policies, code of conduct and team agreement may be de-selected.

Appeal Process

- 17 An appeal against non-nomination to CGS by Scottish Gymnastics is entirely a matter for the athlete and Scottish Gymnastics. This will be held in accordance with Scottish Gymnastics' own appeal procedures, but taking into consideration only the CGS selection policy and agreed sport specific selections standards and conditions
- 18 Following the communication to athletes by Scottish Gymnastics on 19 April 2022, in line with Section 11, appeals can be submitted to Scottish Gymnastics by 24 April 2022, 5pm:
- a) All appeals must be received in writing (letter or email), including the grounds upon which the appeal is made, to Chief Executive Officer (doc.mckelvey@scottishgymnastics.org)
 - b) The sole grounds of appeal against the decision of the selection panel will be that:
 - i. there has been a failure to follow the content of this specific Selection Policy
 - or
 - ii. that the selection panel reached a decision on the basis of an error of fact.
 - c) The appeals panel will meet on 26 April 2022 to discuss any appeals received which are deemed to meet either of the above criteria.
 - d) The appeals panel will be made up of three representatives who were not involved in the original selection process and will be chaired by the Scottish Gymnastics Chief Executive Officer. Additional members will include a strategic board member and a CEO/Performance Director from another Commonwealth sport; all members with no conflict of interest. Technical input may be required from independent experts, not previously involved in selections, should the appeals panel consider it necessary.

- e) In all instances, Scottish Gymnastics will respond in writing by email to the athlete / coach within three working days notifying them of the outcome of the appeal process (deadline 29 April 2022).
 - f) Should the appeals panel uphold any athlete appeal(s), the original selection panel must reconvene to reassess their selection decision based on the grounds of the appeal. The decision reached will be final, the appellant will be informed of the outcome and nomination list will be forwarded to CGS by 2 May 2022.
- 19 An appeal against CGS non-selection on behalf of an athlete may only be submitted by Scottish Gymnastics and not by any individual athlete. If an appeal is submitted to CGS by Scottish Gymnastics, a CGS Appeal Panel will consider the case along with any additional information provided. The appeal must be made by email to jon.doig@teamsotland.scot within 3 days of notification of selection outcomes to Scottish Gymnastics by CGS.

Appointment of Team Staff

A Team Manager has been appointed by CGS in consultation with Scottish Gymnastics to support all three disciplines.

The final complement of Gymnastics team staff attending the Games will ultimately depend upon team numbers and composition and will be determined by CGS in consultation with Scottish Gymnastics. This will include different categories of accreditation and access to the Games Village and other secure areas.
